Community Dinner

Each week our families gather together for a meal prepared by volunteers. This is a great way for you and your group to be a part of the Joshua Station community.

Thank you so much for your interest in our Joshua Station community dinner! If you are interested in serving a dinner, our volunteer coordinator will provide an orientation where we will outline the basics so you get an idea of what is expected when you come.

- The community dinner starts at 6:00pm. Plan to arrive at Joshua Station at 5:00pm with prepared food and eating utensils (see list of things to bring below), so there is plenty of time to get things set up.
- Groups of 10-15 volunteers work the best.
- We have a community kitchen with ovens and microwaves to eat food or keep it warm.
- If you would like, we can provide you with menu ideas.

Things you'll need to bring:

- Prepared food – enough for 100 people (plus the number of volunteers in your group)
- 2-3 gallons of 2% milk
- Paper plates/bowls, napkins, forks/spoons/knives, paper cups, serving bowls or trays, and serving utensils (spatulas, large spoons, etc.)
- Ziploc bags for leftovers
